Rhunahaorine Remembers

November 2019

On 11 am Monday 11th November the school, ELC and visitors gathered around the garden display as a mark of respect and to remember soldiers who died.

Calum O'Hanlon from Campbeltown Grammar played the pipes as we gathered and Rev Burton played the Last Post to close the 2 minute silence.

Dementia Aware

Mrs Sarah McFadzean delivered an informative afternoon for us on dementia and how it is not a disease or anything to be afraid. Children were delighted when Sarah returned to present Dementia Aware badges for their work.

Our day trip to Glasgow was a fun packed informative day. We were treated as V.I.P.s at Pollok House because of our local connection with Mrs Rebecca Maxwell-MacDonald. All the children were dressed up and met members of the household as we were guided round.

Meeting the Gamekeeper in the Gunroom.

Bookbug Fun

A big thank you to everyone who joined us for the Bookbug (we had a great session with lots of songs, rhymes and a story). The next Bookbug is on Monday 9th December. Everyone is welcome, hope to see you there.

We've got a busy month ahead! This week we're joining up with the Elderberries for the afternoon.

We are planning a trip to Campbeltown in partnership with Gigha ELC where will be learning to use money in a real setting.
