

Argyll and Bute Early Years – Three Assets Approach - Feedback from Settings

Setting:

Scoring: 1- not at all useful 2- a little bit useful 3 – fairly useful 4 – very useful

Feedback Statement	1	2	3	4	Comment
This document will support our team to make more effective use of outdoor learning and play
This document will support our team to make more effective use of local culture
This document will support our team to make more effective use of local partnerships
This document will support self- evaluation around the design of our curriculum
This document is easy to engage with as a team
This document is easy to engage with as a practitioner
What suggestions do you have which would improve this document?
Is there anything which you don't like about this document?
Please share with us any other feedback you have regarding the document – especially if it has helped you to make more effective use of outdoor learning and play, culture and partnerships where you live

Thank you for your time and your feedback – this will help us to make the final version as good as it can be!

Please return all feedback to: kathleen.johnston@argyll-bute.gov.uk or send it to Sheena Stewart at Argyll House, Alexandra Parade, Dunoon PA23 8AJ by the end of June 2019.