Behind every young child
that believes in themselves,

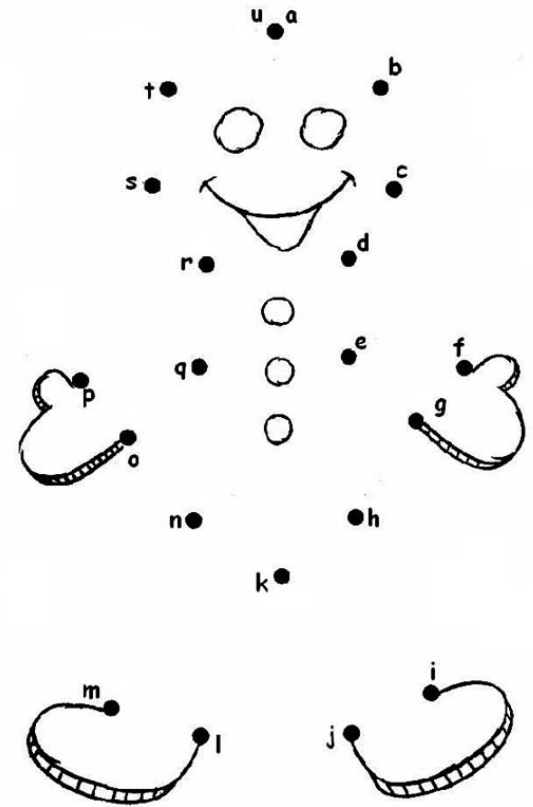

is a parent who believed first.

Joining the Dots

"Children are great imitators.
So give them
something great
to imitate."

Freaking out on your children
is as hypocritical as it is ineffective.

Slow down. Breathe.

Then act the like the adult
you want them to become.

-L.R. Knost

Every word, facial expression, gesture, or action
on the part of a parent

gives the child some message about self-worth.

It is sad that so many parents
don't realize what messages they are sending.

Play is often talked about
as if it were a relief
from serious learning.

But for children,
play is serious learning.

Activities with the children

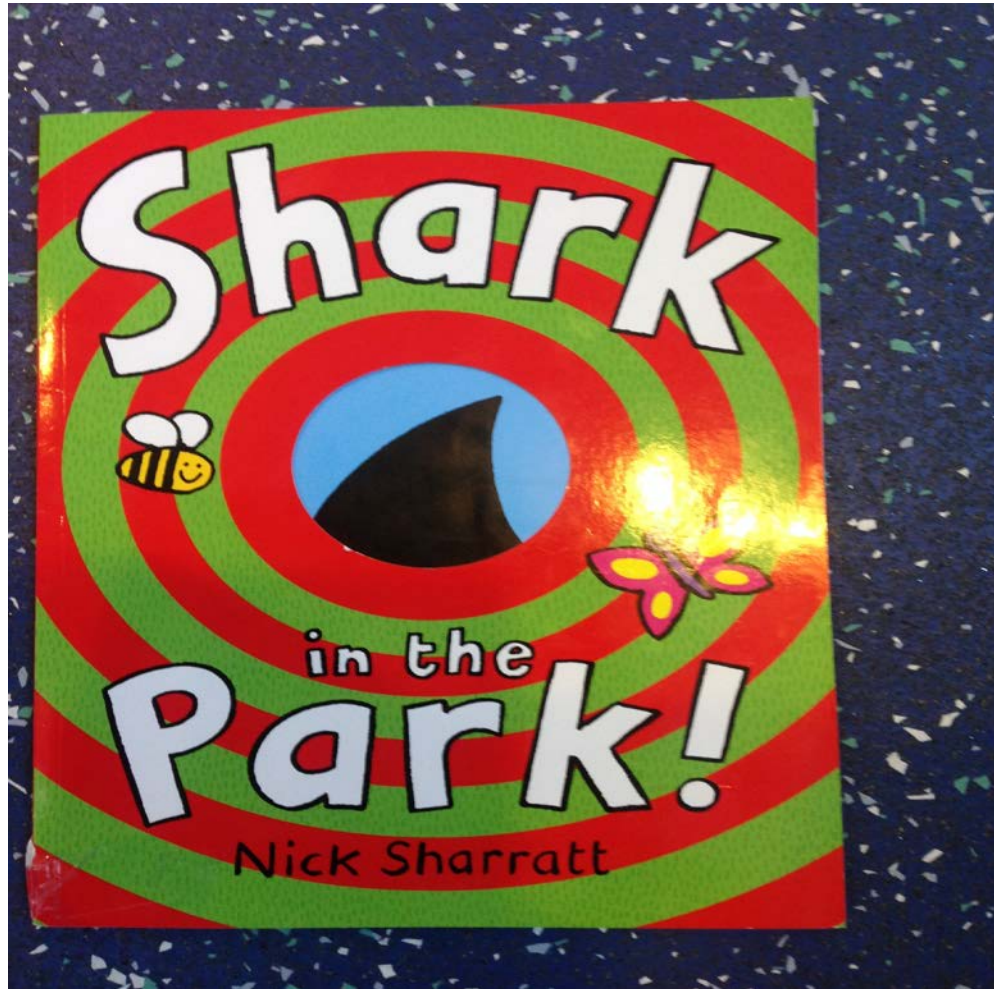

Children don't need more things.

The best toy a child can have

is a parent who gets down on the floor
and plays with them.

CHILDREN'S MOVEMENT

If kids come to us from
strong, healthy, functioning families,

it makes our job easier.

If they do not come to us from
strong, healthy, functioning families,

it makes our job more important.
