

Appointment of Lay Council Member

The General Teaching Council for Scotland (GTCS) is the independent professional regulatory body that maintains and enhances teaching standards and promotes and regulates the teaching profession in Scotland

We are looking to appoint one Lay person to serve as a Council Member.

As a Council member, you will play an important role in:

- influencing and making key decisions that will help shape the future of teaching, the teaching profession and other education professionals in Scotland
- ensuring the maintenance of high standards in teaching and learning and the protection of children and young people

The work will be principally based in Edinburgh.

You will have strategic and analytical skills, be an excellent communicator, have sound judgment and decision making skills, have a strong sense of fairness, integrity and professionalism and be able to work successfully as part of a team.

Appointment	4 years
Commitment	Approximately 12 to 15 days per year
Compensation	£75 for each half day of attendance (up to 3.5 hours). Reasonable expenses will be refunded.

For further information and an application pack visit www.gtcs.org.uk/vacancies or call 0131 314 6043.

The closing date for receipt of applications is midnight on Sunday 8 November 2015.

Interviews will be held in Edinburgh from 30 November to 11 December 2015.

GTC Scotland aims to promote equality and diversity in all its activities. We positively welcome applications from all sections of the community

Make your mark