

Appointment of Investigating Panel Members

The General Teaching Council for Scotland (GTCS) is the independent professional-regulatory body that maintains and enhances teaching standards and promotes and regulates the teaching profession in Scotland

We are looking to appoint 6 Registered teachers and 3 Lay persons to serve as Investigating Panel Members.

Investigating Panels have delegated responsibility to investigate and determine complaints made against registered teachers or those seeking registration.

As an Investigating Panel member, you will play an important role in ensuring the maintenance of high standards in teaching and learning and the protection of children and young people.

The work will be principally based in Edinburgh.

You will have independence of mind, be an excellent communicator, have sound judgment and decision making skills, have a strong sense of fairness, integrity and professionalism and be able to work successfully as part of a team.

Appointment	4 years
Commitment	A minimum of 6 days per year (meetings tend to be half days but could extend to full days depending on the volume and complexity cases being considered)
Compensation	£75 for each half day of attendance (up to 3.5 hours). Reasonable expenses will be refunded.

For further information and an application pack visit www.gtcs.org.uk/vacancies or call 0131 314 6043.

The closing date for receipt of applications is midnight on Sunday 8 November 2015.

Interviews will be held in Edinburgh from 30 November to 11 December 2015.

GTCS Scotland aims to promote equality and diversity in all its activities. We positively welcome applications from all sections of the community
