

Anticipating a death in the school community - Let's talk about it.

" I would genuinely say that I gained something from every presentation that I can take away and act upon in the future "

Conference delegate 2016

6th March 2017

Venue: The Stirling Court Hotel, University of Stirling,
Airthrey Road, Stirling, Scotland FK9 4LA

£45

Bookings:

01494 568909

conferences@childbereavementuk.org | www.childbereavementuk.org

We acknowledge the support of the Scottish Government through the CYPFEIF and ALEC Fund Grant

Programme

- 0930 – 0940 Welcome and introduction
Stewart Wilson, CEO Cruse Scotland
- 0940 - 1000 Keynote speech - Children & bereavement in Scotland
Mark McDonald MSP
- 1000 – 1030 Anticipated bereavement - support for children
Dr Ann Rowland, Child Bereavement UK
- 1030 - 1055 Anticipating a bereavement within the school community -
what schools can do
- 1055 - 1115 Coffee & networking
- 1115 - 1135 Bereavement in school - a parent's view
- 1135 - 1200 The role of young carers and the challenges they face
Marie Ann Kerr, Young Carers Glasgow
- 1200 - 1300 Morning workshop
- 1300 - 1345 Lunch
- 1345 - 1445 Afternoon workshop
- 1445 - 1455 Break
- 1455 - 1505 Welcome back
Stewart Wilson, CEO Cruse Scotland
- 1505 - 1525 A bereaved young person's perspective
- 1525 - 1550 Bereavement and the importance of culture
Roohi Mahmoud, Muslim Bereavement Services
- 1550 - 1605 Working together to support bereaved children in Scotland
Richard Stafford, Child Bereavement UK
- 1605 - 1620 Panel discussion Q&A led by Stewart Wilson, CEO Cruse Scotland

Workshops

WORKSHOP CHOICES:

1. Identifying and supporting young carers
What schools can do to make their lives that little bit easier
2. The power of stories
Helping people to understand themselves and express themselves through the power of narrative
3. Working creatively
The only limitation is our own imagination
4. Supporting children with life-limiting conditions
Looking at supporting the family and the wider school community
5. Bringing death into the curriculum
Opportunities to introduce bereavement into the classroom in an age appropriate way
6. Grief in a digital age
Embracing and working with technology and social media

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

A death within the school environment can cause shock and distress to the whole community. Would you or your colleagues worry about what to say and do? This conference will provide an opportunity to share knowledge and give you the tools and confidence to support pupils and staff. Learning from professionals and families will allow you to take back knowledge to your school. Past delegates have included:

- * Teachers and head teachers
- * Support staff including: school nurses, learning mentors, PHSE leads, school counselling support staff, school chaplains
- * Healthy school leads, LEA personnel, schools governors, educational psychologists
- * Voluntary organisations
- * Children's centre personnel.

TRAINING BOOKING FORM

Please return this form to:

conferences@childbereavementuk.org

Child Bereavement UK, Clare Charity Centre, Saunderton, Buckinghamshire, HP14 4BF

Name of training course: SCOTTISH SCHOOLS CONFERENCE		Date of course: MONDAY 6 th MARCH 2017		Course venue/location: STIRLING HOTEL, STIRLING		£45
Title
First name				Last name
Profession
Place of work/organisation
Work address
						Postcode
Home address
						Postcode
Contact numbers		Mobile
		Work
		Home
Email address
Please specify any dietary, mobility, audio or visual requirements
Please select workshops in order of preference		Identifying & Supporting Young Carers		<input type="checkbox"/>	Supporting children with life-limiting conditions		<input type="checkbox"/>
		The power of stories		<input type="checkbox"/>	Bringing death into the curriculum		<input type="checkbox"/>
		Working creatively		<input type="checkbox"/>	Grief in a digital age		<input type="checkbox"/>
If, in our line of work you come into contact with bereaved families, please tell us:
How many bereaved children do you come into contact with each year?						<input type="text"/>
How many bereaved adults do you come into contact with each year?						<input type="text"/>
Method of payment
<input type="checkbox"/> Cheque: Please make payable to 'Child Bereavement UK'
<input type="checkbox"/> Card: Please pay through Eventbrite, following the course link from our website
<input type="checkbox"/> Invoice: Delegates may only request an invoice if a valid PO number from their employer is submitted with this booking form.
						PO number <input type="text"/>
Please tick here to receive email updates on other relevant training information from Child Bereavement UK <input type="checkbox"/>							