Aim:

To give staff an awareness of the rights and needs of children and young people with additional support needs and the knowledge, confidence and skills to plan, deliver and evaluate relationships, sexual health and parenthood lessons

Target Group:

Primary, SfL, ASN, Guidance and Support staff working with children and young people with additional support needs

Intended Learning Outcomes:

- Highlight key content areas for CfE Health and Wellbeing: sex relationships, sexual health and parenthood lessons
- Increase knowledge of sexual and reproductive health
- Gain skills and awareness in addressing issues of sexuality
- Address values and attitudes and the impact these have on work
- Gain awareness of sources of help

Facilitator:

Adrienne Hannah has been delivering training in sexual health for the past 25 years for education, health, social service and voluntary organisation staff. Since 2002 she has delivered courses in Tayside on sexual health work with people with learning difficulties.

She has experience of facilitating groups for people with learning difficulties around issues of sexual and reproductive health, supporting individuals on a one-to-one basis and working with staff teams to support their clients.

She is co-author of a resource for young people on the autistic spectrum and she is an accredited trainer with the fpa.
