

This years Music Fest Angus took place on Tuesday 27th March at Hospitalfield House in Arbroath. Bands, duos and soloists from across Angus Secondary schools performed and included: Algorithn, Tia Douglas, Ellie Prouse from Arbroath Academy, Katie Nicoll, Beth Law from Webster's High, Killjoy from Forfar Academy. Invited guests Hopes Up High headlined the night and gave valuable Q&A session with the audience. This band previous attendees Rock College (Youth Music Club) at Arbroath Academy and said they would never be where they are today without being part of the project. This event was attended by family, friends, councillors and Angus council senior management.

Performers received valuable feedback, support and encouragement from Rebecca Connelly from Red Rock Music or Paul Judge a professional musician and music teacher.

All the photos from the event are on our facebook Angus Youth Music

This opportunity was funded by Youth Music Initiative.

Photo Credit Erika Stevenson