

Learning for a better future

A Global Citizenship approach

Looking for something inspiring for the new school year? Passionate about building a fairer, more sustainable future through rights based learning?

This free GTCS accredited course in Global Citizenship takes place over the academic year and is designed with an emphasis on participatory methodologies, sharing best practice and professional reflection.

Key components of the programme include guided professional reading, national training workshops, local mentoring, enquiry-based teaching, facilitated reflection sessions and a learning log.

Places are limited to 20 and application deadline is 31 August 2018

For further information please visit www.oneworldcentre.org.uk

Or contact sally@oneworldcentre.org.uk

This course is run by Scotland's Global Learning Centres:

