S3 HOSPITALITY SERVES UP SUPPORT FOR MACMILLAN COFFEE MORNING!

MACMILLAN CANCER SUPPORT

On Tuesday 22nd September, S3 Hospitality hosted a Macmillan Coffee Morning, which is a nationwide fundraising event to raise money for people living with cancer.

Macmillan Cancer Support is a UK charity that provides physical, financial and emotional support to people diagnosed with cancer and their loved ones.

MACMILLAN CANCER SUPPORT

Tell us about Macmillan Cancer Support?

Prior to us starting hospitality the college always supported Macmillan so we decided to support it as well because Macmillan has an annual coffee morning event anyway.

What things did you make?

We made; chicken curry pies, Macaroni pies, Pizza pinwheels, Sausage rolls, Sandwiches, Brownies, Scones, Top hats, Old school cake, Cookies, Meringues, Tiffin, and Rocky road.

How much money did you raise?

So far we have raised £300.98 for Macmillan Cancer Support!

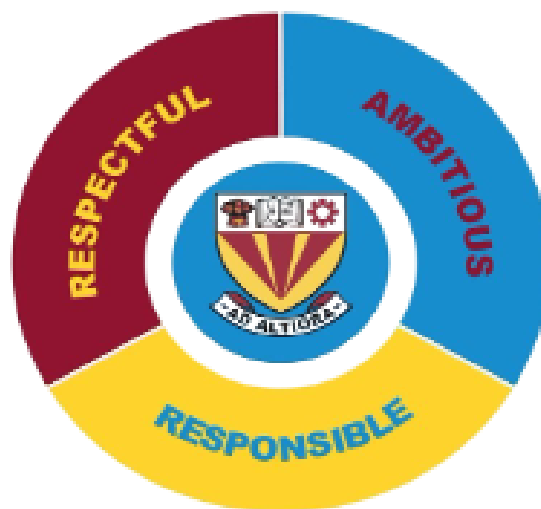

THE POWER OF FIRST IMPRESSIONS

HOW SMALL DETAILS MAKE A BIG IMPACT

You never get a second chance to make a first impression. It takes just seven seconds for someone to form a first impression. Whether you're walking into a job interview, hosting a school open evening, or meeting a new neighbor, those opening moments set the tone for the entire relationship.

First impressions aren't just about appearance, they reflect our values, our respect for others, and the culture of our community. As Brechin's only High School, we carry a proud reputation for athletic excellence, musical talent, and a commitment to empowering every pupil. Every positive first impression we give visitors is an opportunity to highlight the incredible work happening across our school community.

First impressions are rarely about being perfect. They are about being present, respectful, and genuine. Next time you step into a new environment, focus on making a connection, the rest will follow naturally!

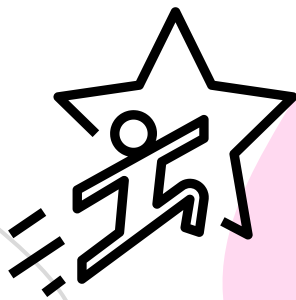

BGE Curriculum Evening

Brechin High School is excited to welcome parents and carers on Tuesday, September 29th for a showcase of our pupils' fantastic work!

The open evening runs from 4:30 PM to 6:00 PM.

The fun doesn't end there, stick around for our first Music Concert of the session in the Theatre at 6:30 PM! Entry is free, though any donations toward our S3 YPI project would be greatly appreciated Brechin's Got Talent has been pushed back to later in December. That gives us extra time to get our acts polished and ready!

Library News

by Owyn (S3)

Books are being banned all over the world! Our Library is promoting banned books in school, and the slogan this year is 'Read like your Rights Depend on it'.

Our aim is to highlight books that have been banned for unreasonable reasons, such as featuring LGBT characters, use of words such as black, in Black Beauty during the Apartheid Era of South Africa, and we want to teach children that books don't need to be banned but they should be warned of the contents within.

Daniel, ex-Reading Ambassador, made a small film with Matthew Fitt, called Hallowe'en, a film adaptation of Violet Jacob's poem about the death of her son at the Somme. Soon to be released, the library and the school are so excited to see one of our pupils star in this short film! You can watch it at www.youtube.com/watch?v=vAKYmsC8PKg

The Library news for September has been released and it has book reviews and a manga of the month and its filled with lovely books you should consider reading, including a new segment called Storytelling through gaming, where we take you to the positives of gaming through the stories told within.

After the holidays, there will be a feature on the Glasgow Comic Con that happened on the 27th of September and I can't wait for our readers to find out more.
