

desserts

Choose from these delicious desserts to top off your reading fun .

29. Create a Crossword

30. Write a song, rap or poem based on your book. Bonus point if you perform it to your class!

31. Write a paragraph explaining which character you'd most like to be friends with, and why.

F
FICTION

32. Summarise your book in a tweet. Remember you only have 140 characters!

33. What does your novel's setting look like? Draw and label it.

34. Create a comic strip based on your favourite part of your book.

35. Write a text conversation between two characters from your book. You should include at least 5 texts for each character.

F
FICTION

36. Create a Facebook page for a character in the novel. You should include information about them, and status updates.

F
FICTION

37. Create a 10 question quiz, with answers, based on your book.

38. Write a blurb for the sequel to your novel.

F
FICTION

39. Find 10 words that were new to you and write down their meanings

40. Write a review of your book on Eclipse. Remember to write about what the book is about, your favourite part, and who you would recommend reads it!

E
ECLIPSE

How to order:

First, choose and read book. Books can be fiction or non-fiction and of any genre but watch out for the odd exception.

Then, choose an activity that you haven't yet completed from the menu. Activities can be completed in any order.

F
FICTION

Means that the activity is for fiction books only

T
TEMPLATE

Means there is a template available on Sourcef:
Reading Awards

Complete the activity to the very best of your ability.

When it is complete, make sure your name is on it, write the number of the activity on it, and hand/email it to your English teacher.

If they are happy with your work, your teacher will mark your points score on your class chart.

Teachers can also award bonus points at their discretion for a really excellent piece of work.

Rewards

More desserts = more rewards!

7 desserts = Bronze award

20 desserts = Silver award

40 desserts = Gold award

65 desserts = Platinum award

Forfar Academy Reading Awards

Get rewarded for reading!

This belongs to:

Reading is... everything!

starters

Choose from these scrumptious starters for the perfect start to your Bronze Award.

1. Write 5 questions that you'd like to ask the author of your book.
2. Create a wordsearch based on your book.
3. Draw a new front cover for your book.
4. Create a poster, PowerPoint slide or Sway to advertise your book.
5. Write a shelf review about your book. Get your template from Mrs Page.
6. Make an attractive bookmark promoting your read to other pupils.
7. Create an business card for the lead character in your novel. Make sure you include their name and details of what they do.
8. Work through some written instructions to create an object e.g. origami, a recipe, a pattern.

Useful Websites

For wordsearches & crosswords:
www.discoveryeducation.com/free-puzzlemaker/

Eclipse: <https://u003636.microlibrarian.net>

Templates can be found on school computers in Sourcef:Reading Awards

main courses

Choose from these marvellous mains for a magnificent reading experience.

10. Write the first chapter of the sequel to your book.
11. Create a new character for your novel and write a new scene that includes them.
12. Read a book chosen for you by one of your teachers or your librarian. Have a brief discussion with them afterward to share your thoughts on it.
13. Write a newspaper article which relates the story of a key part of the plot or, if non-fiction, the information contained in the book.
14. Think about what would make your book a great film and complete the Enroute to Hollywood activity.
15. Write a film script of your favourite scene in your book.
16. Make 5 Top Trumps cards based on your book.
17. If you were to interview the main character from your novel, what would you ask? Write at least 6 questions and the answers that you think the character would be most likely to give.
18. Create a game based on your book.
19. How would the story look from a different perspective? Write a few paragraphs in the style/from the viewpoint of the antagonist (baddie).

20. Can't decide which activity to choose? Take an (Un)lucky Dip.
21. Get creative and recreate a key scene in 3D with a diorama.
22. Dare you take a gamble with the dice of doom? Roll Mrs Page's dice and answer the questions.
23. Step inside the mind of your book's main character. What are their thoughts and feelings?
24. Whose phone is this? Use the template to design the phone of a character in your novel.
25. Look through the keyhole at an important scene. Draw what you see.

for sharing

26. Act out the key scene from your book with friends. You can film this or perform it for a live audience.
27. Hold a mini book group. You should all read the same book and then hold a short meeting (snacks optional) to discuss it. Record your discussion.
28. Create a book trailer or podcast advertising your book. 