

Pay It Forward

Pay

it

Forward

This is the pay it forward example from the film. Trevor helps his Mum, Mr Simmonet and Jerry. His hope is that each of the three people he helps will go on to help another three people, and this will keep going. Therefore creating a movement of people helping other helping and creating a change in the world.

Examples

PAY IT FORWARD

INTERNATIONALLY BESTSELLING AUTHOR
CATHERINE RYAN HYDE
YOUNG READERS EDITION

The film is loosely based on this book

what will you do today?

what will you
do today?

what will you
do today?

Task

Think of a good action you could do that could be paid forward.

Success criteria

- 1) Make sure your action is manageable and keeps within the current guidelines
- 2) Think about how your action could be paid forward
- 3) Set a realistic timeframe and amount of people you hope your pay it forward action will help.
- 4) Create a PowerPoint presentation or report detailing your pay it forward idea and what you hope to achieve from it.
- 5) Carry out your action, take pictures and add them to your PowerPoint presentation. Did you meet your expectations or exceed them? How did your action help people.
- 6) Send presentation/report to grp-faphilosophy@glowschools.org.uk

Examples of good actions

Make a cup of tea

Phone a friend or family member to ask how they are doing

Help with a household task such as hoovering

Post a card for someone who can't leave their house

Take a neighbour some shopping

Mrs Thacker's parents made her family this Quiche for tea.

So Mrs Thacker & family decided to make these cakes

For 3 different neighbours and friends

Mrs Thacker's pay it forward example.

Mr Swift's pay
it forward
summer plans

Lots of local businesses have been harmed by covid19. Over the holidays I will support my local cafes, restaurants and golf courses.

I will make donations of toys and games to local charities.
I will also make a donation to a local foodbank

I will thank all shop workers for keeping their stores running during lockdown

Weeks 1 -4

A huge well done to all S2 pupils who have completed work in the Social Subjects Faculty since our change of timetable.

We have tried to reply to all the emails we have been sent to acknowledge we have seen your work and leave feedback if appropriate. If you have completed work for weeks 1-4 and have not received feedback by Friday 19th June please email your work again to m.swift@angusschools.org.uk

We want to recognise your efforts.

