

Who can join?

All parents and carers make up the parent forum and are welcome to come to any of our meetings

What can you bring?

As a parent or carer you:

Are an expert on your own children and bring this understanding, information and knowledge about their needs

Have unique and varied skills, knowledge and experience

Are a member of the local community and have links and contacts that the school may not have

Are in touch with other parents and can represent a wider range of views
