

There's a Tiger in the Garden

Word muddle – put the words in the correct order to make a sentence from the story

you	don't	Why	play
garden?	the	in

Word muddle – put the words in the correct order to make a sentence from the story

Jeff,	let's	Come	go
on	home.

Word muddle – put the words in the correct order to make a sentence from the story

live	Tigers	jungle.	the in

Question Time

Literal Questions – answer questions about what I have read. Find it and prove it.

Where and when does the story start?

Who is the story about?

How is Nora feeling at the beginning of the story?

How big are the dragonflies that Nora meets?

Why is the polar bear grumpy?

Who is in the bathtub?

What type of ending does the story have?

Inferential Questions – the story does not actually tell you the answers to these questions instead use the story clues and your own knowledge to answer these questions

Grandma's living room is full of toys. Why do you think Nora is bored when there are so many things to do?

Why does Nora not want to believe there is a tiger in the garden?

Do you think there is a real tiger in Grandma's garden?

What would the temperature be like in Grandma's garden to keep all the different creatures happy and healthy?

Did this really happen?

BIG QUESTION –Nora and the Tiger talk about being real. 'This make Nora feel a bit funny' What do you think about their conversation?

Evaluative Questions – Answer with your thoughts and opinions.

Do you like, dislike the story?

Why do you like, dislike the story?

The plants that grab Jeff look like venus fly traps. What do you think?

Would you accept a lift from a tiger? How do you think it would feel to ride on the back of a tiger?

Do you know someone who has a big garden that you can have adventures in?

Have you ever imagined that there are different animals in your garden?

Wonder Words

Which word is your favourite word in the story?

Which word means the same as bored?

disinterested

energetic

excited

interested

What does the word definitely mean?

it will happen

unsure it will happen

doubt it will happen

unclear it will happen

What does the word magnificent not mean?

grand

brilliant

excellent ordinary

What does the word wretched mean?

happy

gloomy

cheerful

joyful

Rhyme Time – can you think of words which rhyme with plant

tree