Achieve an Industry recognised qualification and have the opportunity to work within the Financial Services while at School.

Foundation Apprenticeship Pathfinder in
Financial Services

The pathfinder is delivered by Edinburgh College; Sighthill Campus, with Industry visits and work placements from a number of financial services organisations across Edinburgh

Financial Services (SCQF 6)

Financial Services: An Introduction

Financial Services: The Regulatory Framework

Financial Services: Communicating Effectively

Financial Services: Promoting Positive Customer Relationships

Edinburgh College; Sighthill Campus

3 units from the Vocational Qualification – Providing Financial Services (SVQ 3)

Developing yourself to improve and maintain workplace competence in a financial services environment

Develop productive working relationships in a financial services environment

Ensure you comply with regulations in the financial services environment

In College and in the workplace

Other Features:

- This Pathfinder Apprenticeship is delivered over one year
- A one week work placement will potentially be completed during October (TBC)
- A two week work placement will potentially be completed during June (TBC)
- Individual industry days will be completed throughout the course (TBC)
- Will be completed during the travel column on a Tuesday and Thursday afternoon
- To be included in a schools course choice sheets (pilots indicate too much additional workload if above normal timetable)
- Target audience, as a guide, are students undertaking or have completed Highers in subjects such as English, Maths, Business Management, Administration & IT, Accounting, Economics, History, Modern Studies, etc.
- Recruitment will begin after the Easter school holidays. An induction may take place during the final four weeks of the summer term, potentially within a financial institution (TBC)

Progression: Employment within the Financial Services Sector

Move into a Modern Apprenticeship in Financial Services

College/University courses in Business, Accounting, Economics, etc.

School leaver programmes at companies such as EY, Standard Life, amongst others