The stone originally came from Lookabootye brae and was sacred to the pre Christian deity , Mannan ,according to a plaque on the old Tolbooth.

The mannan stone is 12 foot tall. It is made from the tipe of stone from the early 19th Century.

When King Robert lived in Clackmannan tower he went out one day and lost his glove. He found it next to the mannan stone so it is also known as King Robert`s Stone.
