

What the Ladybird Heard Next

Conjunctions - Joining words

Help the Ladybird join up her sentences using 'and'.

Here is an example.

The cow was in her shed. The horse was in his stall.

The cow was in her shed and the horse was in his stall.

1. The barn was full of straw. The field was full of sheep.

2. The fat red hen had thin brown legs. She laid lots of speckled eggs.

3. The ladybird flew. She saw two men in a big black van.
