

Let's Read

What is Shrove Tuesday?

Describe a pancake from Scotland.

Name the ingredients used to make a traditional pancake.

Let's Create

Write a diary entry from the perspective of the woman from the famous pancake race of Olney, Buckinghamshire.

Let's Evaluate

On Shrove Tuesday, pancake races still take place across the United Kingdom. Some people believe having such an event is a waste of food. What do you think?

Explain your answer.

Let's Connect

What would you give up for Lent?
Explain your answer.

Shrove Tuesday Reflective Reading

Complete activities to make three in a row!

Let's Summarise

Summarise the different traditions associated with Shrove Tuesday across the United Kingdom.

Let's Explore

Use the Internet to research how other countries celebrate Shrove Tuesday.

Let's Dig Deeper!

Why do you think Shrove Tuesday is also called Pancake Day?

Why is Shrove Tuesday an important date in the Christian calendar?

Why do people traditionally make pancakes on Shrove Tuesday?

Let's Reflect

Why do you think Shrove Tuesday is known as the 'Day of Bursting' in Iceland and 'Fat Tuesday' in France?