

English	Mathematics	Technology and Science
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Go to your local library and borrow a children's book (fiction or non-fiction) with a wartime theme. If you do the task above, you could also write a book review for your classmates. What did you enjoy about it? Would you recommend it? Make a persuasive poster of your own but this time, encouraging your classmates to do something good for them! For example: read a book, go for a walk or eat more fruits or vegetables. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Research old currency used around the time of the First World War. Create five or more rationing-themed word problems for your classmates. Measure out the ingredients and make a meal from a recipe from the early 1900s. Take photos or bring it in to school to share! 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Make a presentation on the computer on a First World War topic that interests you and show it to your class. Find out what a trench cake was and try making your own! Use your sewing or knitting skills to create something that might have been worn during the war years.
Languages	<h2>Homework Choice Grid</h2> <h1>The First World War</h1> 		History
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> During the Christmas Truce, German soldiers reportedly sang Christmas carols. Find a German version of a famous carol and see if you recognise any words. Find out the French and German translations for 'the First World War'. Test your classmates (and adults in school!) 			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Find out what the uniform of a First World War soldier was like. Make a fact-file or presentation on any of these important people: Douglas Haig, Walter Tull, Jack Cornwell, Edith Cavell, Helen Fairchild. Ask your family to help you make a family tree. Can you find out which of your ancestors were alive during 1914-1918?
Expressive Arts	Working With Others	Out and About
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Create your own poppies using recycled materials you have at home. For example, you could make one from the end of a 2-litre pop bottle and paint the inside of the base red and black. Listen to a song written around the time of the First World War. Search for: 'Pack Up Your Troubles', 'Keep the Home Fires Burning' or Gustav Holst's 'The Planets Suite: Mars' or 'Jupiter'. Write down how you feel when listening to them and share with your class. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> With a friend or family member, write questions to ask someone about life around the time of the First World War. Meet up with your friends and play a game of football or cards, just like some soldiers did during the Christmas Truce. Who was 'Sergeant Stubby' and how did he help during the war? 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Research games that children in the early 1900s played. Try them out yourself then teach your classmates how to play them! Visit a local war memorial and record what you saw with a photograph or recount. Go to a museum which has some information on the First World War. You can then share what you learned with your classmates.

Note to Parents and Carers on E-safety: Many of the activities above involve researching about the First World War online. Please practise online safety by encouraging your child to share their findings or perhaps even researching the topics together.