

We thought about what all the different parts of the body were called and where they are - Cree

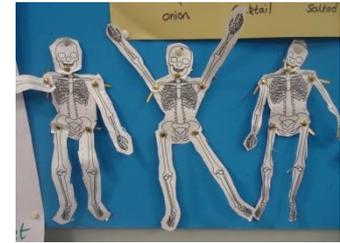

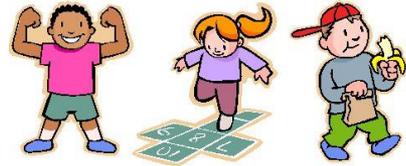

We were making the blood like it was pumping all around the heart - Emma

We were tasting different flavours of crisps. We voted on our favourite and least favourite - Amy

We used cubes to measure the size of our feet and our hands - Jasmine

Healthy Bodies P1/2

We drew pictures of the different things we can do with our hands - Kianna

We made the skeletons do the skeleton dance. We cut them out and put pins in - Junior

I was wearing the body suit. You could see the bladder, the heart, the lungs and lots of other parts - Josh

We were looking at people's pictures of their family. We were looking to see if they looked like each other - Emily

We watched a video and we copied the skeleton's dance moves - Zane

We were learning about when you eat something where it goes. It goes into your stomach, through your stomach then out your bottom into the toilet - Seth

We looking through the machine into our eyes to see if there was anything in them - Connor

My favourite bit of our topic was making the healthy dinner plates - Cora

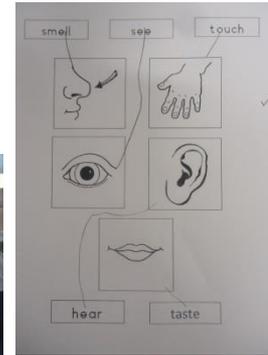

We were drawing pictures of good and bad germs - Gregor

We were putting food on the right bit on the dinner plate. The green bit is fruit and vegetables - Carter

We were learning about the bladder and we were seeing how it works - Hannah

We made our own healthy dinner - Eva

We learned about the 5 senses. Seeing, hearing, smelling, touching and tasting - Mollie

We were making lungs. We used balloons, straws and rubber bands - Miren

We listening to people's hearts through the stethoscope - Mariel

We were learning how to wash our hands. We sang a song - Jack

I was looking at Millar's brain that he made - Liam

We did Beat the Street. It keeps you fit - Lawson