

D' ye mind ae Mr Mac?

Oh Mr Mac he is our boss,

And now it's time to suffer the loss.

D' ye mind the time we went outdoors?

We learned and learned, so much more.

Daniel P7

Oh Mr Mac is very kind,

Not to mention a solid mind.

D' ye mind the time he wrote a poem?

The old P7s he got to know 'em.

Douglas P7

Oh Mr Mac he is our heid,

Who never failed to take the lead.

D' ye mind the time we made paella?

When it comes to cooking, he's just the fella.

Lilian P6

Oh Mr Mac is now awa',

In what it seems no time at a'.

D' ye mind the time we got jobs in his caf?

Servin' drinks 'n' grub was such a laugh.

Olivia P7

Oh Mr Mac is just the chap,

He taught us how to read a map.

D' ye mind the time of orienteering?

Who'd have thought it was so appealing?

Georgina P7

Oh Mr Mac he is our Principal,

There is no question that he is sensible

D' ye mind the treat o' midget gems?

Just don't fidget with them!

Millie P7

Oh Mr Mac he is our Headteacher,

He always follows the right procedure.

D' ye mind the time he telt us stories?

Of times gone by and former glories.

James P6

Oh Mr Mac he is our chief,

Never missing a safety brief.

D' ye mind the time we a' had fun?

Oot on sports day in the sun.

Alex P4

Oh Mr Mac is our heid honcho,

When rain came on he wore a poncho.

D' ye mind the time o' Sportshall athletics,

Or teaching sums and arithmetics?

Ben P4

Oh Mr Mac he is the man,

No one can teach just like he can.

D' ye mind the time we made a fire?

Pitty the hot chocolate tasted so dire!

Hannah P6

Oh Mr Mac he is our Master,

He makes me run that wee bit faster.

D' ye mind when we played stop the bus?

We will miss him, all of us.

Ami P5

P4-7 & Mr A, February 2018

Good luck Mr Mac and all the best!
