

The Gold Bar

One day Derrick went to an abandoned mine. Derrick was going to the mine to get an ancient gold bar. When he went to the mine something growled. Derrick crept down and slowly started mining.

Derrick heard some footsteps and turned around but nothing was there but the creature stepped closer and closer and suddenly Derrick fell in a deep dark pit. Then Derrick said to the creature what are you going to do to me? The dark and scary figure walked closer to him with two glowing eyes and said this gold bar is mine! I'll help you out if you leave and never come back. As Derrick was walking out he saw a bit of gold and took it. When he went home as he was in his warm covers he saw a dark figure and the figure stepped closer the house he heard the door crept open ...