

Hide and Seek

Inside it was quiet, outside there were no clouds just the moon. There Jane was hiding in the cupboard. She could hear something or someone searching the other room.

It stopped. The house was quiet once more. Jane's heart pounded, she could barely see from inside the cupboard. The door creaked open and a foot could be seen. Who was there?

Sitting in the dark damp cupboard Jane thought back. Her parents were leaving and they said that she was old enough to babysit Tom. After they left Tom asked if they could play hide and seek with the doll so Jane said "Fine."

But as soon as they hid Tom was nowhere to be found. Jane stayed quiet as a mouse. The mysterious figure came close to the cupboard but then turned to the bed.

She froze as it came close again. The cupboard door swung open. Blinking like an owl she made out the shape of a young boy. It was Tom! Jane gave him a big hug then they went to Tom's room.

As Jane put Tom to bed she asked what happened to the doll. He said it disappeared. Jane went to watch TV until their parents got back. At the window a faint tapping could be heard.
