

We have been learning all about 'Hedgehogs' this week. We listened to a detailed video all about hedgehogs and a presentation. We then had to recreate an information poster and present it to the class telling them what we had learned. We worked in pairs for this task. We had lots of fun creating these posters!

They look incredible!

