Painted Stones Challenge

I have seen some of you joining in with the painting of stones and this activity reminds me of all of the preparation that goes into making your products for gala day.

This week's challenge is to paint a stone and add it to Franklin the snake at Holywood!! Let's see how long he can get before the summer.

I Scream, You Scream, We All Scream for Ice Cream

Design an ice cream sundae using your fantastic collage skills. Use a range of colours and textures to create your masterpiece. Upload your artwork to the blog!

Crafting

We know that Tanith has been tie dying, Erin has been building bubble blowers and Orla has been designing phone covers. Fantastic products to sell at a gala day stall.

What have you been building, making, crafting, designing or inventing that you could sell at a stall?

We'll be looking out for crafting on the blog!

Fun Fair Games

There are lots of carnival games that you could set up in your garden for gala week including:

- Beat the Goalie
- Hook a Duck
- Wet Sponge Throw
- Apple Bobbing
- Ring Toss

SHARING PHOTOS AND VIDEOS OF THESE EVENTS ARE HIGHLY RECCOMENDED! WE CAN'T WAIT TO SEE YOU ALL HAVING LOTS OF FUN.

Hollywood Gala Day Game!

Please read the rules carefully before beginning the board game:

- All players must create a counter before they begin.
- Place your counters on the start square.
- All family members roll the dice and the person who rolls the highest number starts.
- If a player reaches a task square you must all freeze and complete the task. Read the tasks below before beginning-

Task 1: Make up a new dance move. For the game to carry on all of the players must copy the dance move.

Task 2: Fastest family member to do 20-star jumps gets to move forward a space on the game board.

Task 3: Well done for winning the game! Head outside and grab a bucket of water. Soak an adult of your choice (remember to ask them first so they have the chance to grab a towel)!!

Find the game on the next page!

Once you have played the Hollywood version could you create your own family version!! Find the blank template below.

Have fun!!
