

Imagineering Challenge

Walt Disney World theme park is made up of lots of different "lands". You can take a virtual tour of them here: Walt Disney World Virtual Tour

Can you help Disney create a new land for the theme park?

What new land would you add?

What would it look like?

What landmark would it be known for?

Can you design a ride for it?

Watch this video of Disney's real Imagineers at work to help get you started:

Disney Imagineers

Walt Disney World

Lights, camera, action!

Act out a scene from your favourite Disney movie. You can do this on your own, with family, with your toys or even through a stop motion animation.

Post on the blog but, shhhh, don't tell us the film! Let's see if we can guess the film from your fabulous acting and directing!

Artist's Corner

Learn how to draw your favourite Disney character using these online tutorials:

Disney drawing tutorials

Can you create your own character then teach someone in your family how to draw it?

Japan

Write a haiku

HAIKU Poetry

Haiku is a traditional form of Japanese poetry. It consists of 3 lines. Line 1 has 5 syllables, line 2 has 7 syllables, and line 3 has 5 syllables. The subject is usually about nature or the seasons. This poetry does not need to rhyme.

White, sandy beaches
Ocean waves from far away
Warm sun shining down

Food Art

Presentation is very important in Japanese cooking. Not only must food taste delicious but it has to look great too! Can you transform an ordinary plate of food into a work of art?

Hairbrushes at the ready!

The karaoke machine was invented in 1971 by Daisuke Inoue, a Japanese musician from Kobe, Japan. Host your own karaoke event! This can be with your family, or on a video call with friends. Happy Singing!!!

Japan is the home of origami! Have a go at some of Mrs Madden's origami from her craft page on the blog. Remember to share your creations with us!

In Australia and New Zealand ANZAC day is celebrated on April 25th every year to commemorate the soldiers who fought during World War One. ANZAC biscuits were traditionally baked to send off to the troops who were fighting. People still make ANZAC biscuits now however. Give this easy ANZAC biscuit recipe a try at home. They are super easy and don't need a lot of ingredients.

<https://www.bbcgoodfood.com/recipes/anzac-biscuits>

The Great Barrier Reef is the world's largest coral reef system which stretches for over 2,300 kilometres. It is located in the Coral Sea which is off the coast of Queensland in the East of Australia.

Take a virtual tour of the Great Barrier Reef with David Attenborough using this website.

<https://attenboroughsreef.com/map.php?prompt=0>

Can you write down as many species of wildlife and plants that you see on your tour? Can you create food chains using the wildlife and plants that you see on your tour?

Can you create a piece of artwork of a section of the Great Barrier Reef? Think about all the different colours and textures that you will need to include. You may want to use collage, paint or another medium.

Australia

Learn about lots of different types of Australian animals, birds and reptiles on the Lone Pine Koala Sanctuary's website.

<https://koala.net/wildlife-au>

Watch some of their live webcams where you can look into the homes of koalas, platypus', dingos, lizards and more.

<https://koala.net/webcams>

Have a go at creating some Aboriginal artwork.

Aboriginal artwork uses symbols, patterns, dots and earthy colours. Use this website to help you learn more about Aboriginal artwork and to give you some ideas for your own piece.

<https://art-educ4kids.weebly.com/aboriginal-art-and-patterning.html>

Learn all about Antarctica on this fantastic website.

<https://discoveringantarctica.org.uk/>

There are different topics for you to explore such as oceans, landscapes, ecosystems and food webs, tourism, challenges and more. There are photos, videos and fact sheets which will help you to feel like you are visiting Antarctica without even leaving your sofa!

Antarctica

Can you create an igloo using marshmallows or cotton wool balls? Make sure you don't leave any gaps so that your igloo is warm and wind proof inside. For instructions on how to create your igloo visit this website. <https://www.momtastic.com/diy/752735-build-a-diy-marshmallow-igloo-with-your-kids/amp/>

Watch this episode of the David Attenborough documentary Seven Worlds, One Planet- Antarctica. <https://www.bbc.co.uk/iplayer/episode/m0009tt8/seven-worlds-one-planet-series-1-1-antarctica>

Create a list of things that you would need to take with you on an expedition to Antarctica, illustrate your list.

You can't visit Antarctica without snow!! Have a go at making your own fake snow using this video to help. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AZbjrYcNpPs>

Waterslide Fun!!!!

Waterslide Day is one of the biggest events of the year at Hollywood. Celebrate it at home with your own water themed fun and games! Paddling pool, water balloons, slipping and sliding on tarpaulins...or maybe you have some great ideas of your own???

Time to cool off!

Waterslide day would not be the same without an ice lolly to cool off! Make sure you have some in the freezer or you could have a go at making your own. Here are some ideas of how you can make ice lollies without moulds:

<https://www.purewow.com/food/how-to-make-popsicles-without-molds>

HOLYWOOD

...because there is no where we would rather be on the last day of school!

Buffet Lunch

No one puts on a lunchtime spread quite like Mrs Gray-McNicol! Make a celebratory buffet lunch to enjoy with your family. You could research food from our virtual trip destinations as inspiration for your menu!

Movie afternoon

After a busy day of water fun and ice lolly eating it's time to chill. Snuggle up on the sofa to watch a film. Don't forget the popcorn!