

French 18.01.21

Last week we learned the names of some animals in French. How many can you remember???

Have a look at the wordsearch saved on the learning pages and translate the French words into English. Check your answers using last week's French grid.

See if you can find all the words in the wordsearch. No need to print it off - just look for them on the screen.

Oink, oink!

Moooooo!

Did you know???

Did you know that animal sounds in French are different to animal sounds in English?

For example, in French pigs make an "oink, oink" sound and in French they say "groin, groin".

Listen to this song about a farmer called Mathurin. How many animals and sounds can you spot.

Using the vocabulary from last week, can you draw pictures of animals based on the descriptions below?

Un grand chien rose.

Un petit cheval bleu.

Une grande souris jaune.

Un petit chat vert.

In French, write a description for this animal.

Draw your own weird and wonderful creature and write a description in French. Use the online dictionary to find the names of some new animals. Why not post your drawing on the blog and see if anyone else can write a description for it.
