You can send me pictures of the work you have done.	Feis Rois music lesson: tune in at 10.05am Monday morning over on the Feis Rois team, for the second session with Kate and Kaitlin. I hope to see you there! PE Fitness Stations: We are at Week 3 now so if you have been managing to do 1 minute at each station, without stopping you are doing really well! Can you do 1 and ½ mins? If you haven't managed to do the Fitness Stations, I hope you are getting outside for some play or exercise each day. Anything that increases your heart rate and makes you feel out of breath is good!

You should concentrate on joining letters correctly, spaces between words, and keeping writing on the line. P4s- make sure that your writing isn't too big. Try using smaller lines if it is. You could also add illustrations to decorate!	Burns Day: Traditional Burns' suppers on the 25th of January serve haggis, neeps and tatties, which I love, but I know not everyone does! Can you create a Burns' supper with your own favourite Scottish foods? Brainstorm a list of your family's favourite Scottish ingredients/ foods and then create a meal or even a menu for the family to enjoy! Maybe yours is vegetarian or even vegan. I'd love to see pictures of what you manage to do. If you can't make the food, you could always draw an imaginary Scottish plate of food.
