

Lisa's Space Adventer

Chapter one

It was an ordinary day in London but not for a eleven year old Lisa. The reason why is because poor Lisa's family was moving to America. Lisa's family is moving so far away is because her father is going to be an astronaut for Nasa he will be the first man on Saturn. So they were on there way to America on a plane. When they landed Lisa's dad had to go for more training before he goes to space. It was only four days till he leaves for space. Lisa loved space but she doesn't want to go to space when she was older she only liked studying space. Lisa with her dad on the way to Nasa. When they arrived Lisa's dad "told her stay in the cafe don't leave it because the center is quite big got it". Lisa said nothing just nodded and went over. Lisa wasn't going to stay here for two hours was she. So while her father was away Lisa waited until she couldn't see him.

Chapter two

While Lisa was walking she walked past the meeting room she heard her dad say "so take of in four days won't happen" then a man called Charlie James said "No it will happen today". Then nobody said anything. Lisa said "Noooooooo" a bit to loud and her dad heard her and said "may I be excused*" and left. When the door opened "he said what are you doing here" Lisa saided nothing. Then a few hours later Lisa's dad in his suite on his to the rocket but Lisa heard that there wasn't anyone had there going to get stuck up there. So Lisa ran on to the rocket but couldn't find him so hid in a storage hole. Lisa had the chance to escape*. When she was about escape* the rocket was taking she had to find her dad pronto.

Chapter three

While Lisa was searching for her dad she began to float because of no gravity on the rocket it was hard for her to find where her dad was. While Lisa ~~steps~~ searching for her dad she heard a rattle but went on to with looking for her dad. When Lisa found where her dad she heard Charlie James say "Men you will be stuck in space when you reach Saturn". Then Lisa burst throw and said "Dad so we're stuck in space".

Lisa's dad said "What are you doing here"?! Lisa said nothing looked at the ground. + When Lisa's dad told his crew about Lisa and them being stuck in space for 1 hole year there was whispers from the crew. Lisa's dad is the captain of this ship.

Chapter four

The trip to Saturn would only take 7 months to get there but because it is January it would take quite a while they would be there in August the 19th is Lisa's birthday. When Lisa found out this there was a big crash that made a tool fall on to a button that was called hyperspeed then there was datching. Then there was bright light then they were next to Saturn's ring they were here.

Chapter five

Then they noticed that they nearly had a full tank of fuel. After about an hour every one was getting into an astronaut suit then they were getting of the rocket called The Eagle. When they were on Saturn they noticed it moving as if it was

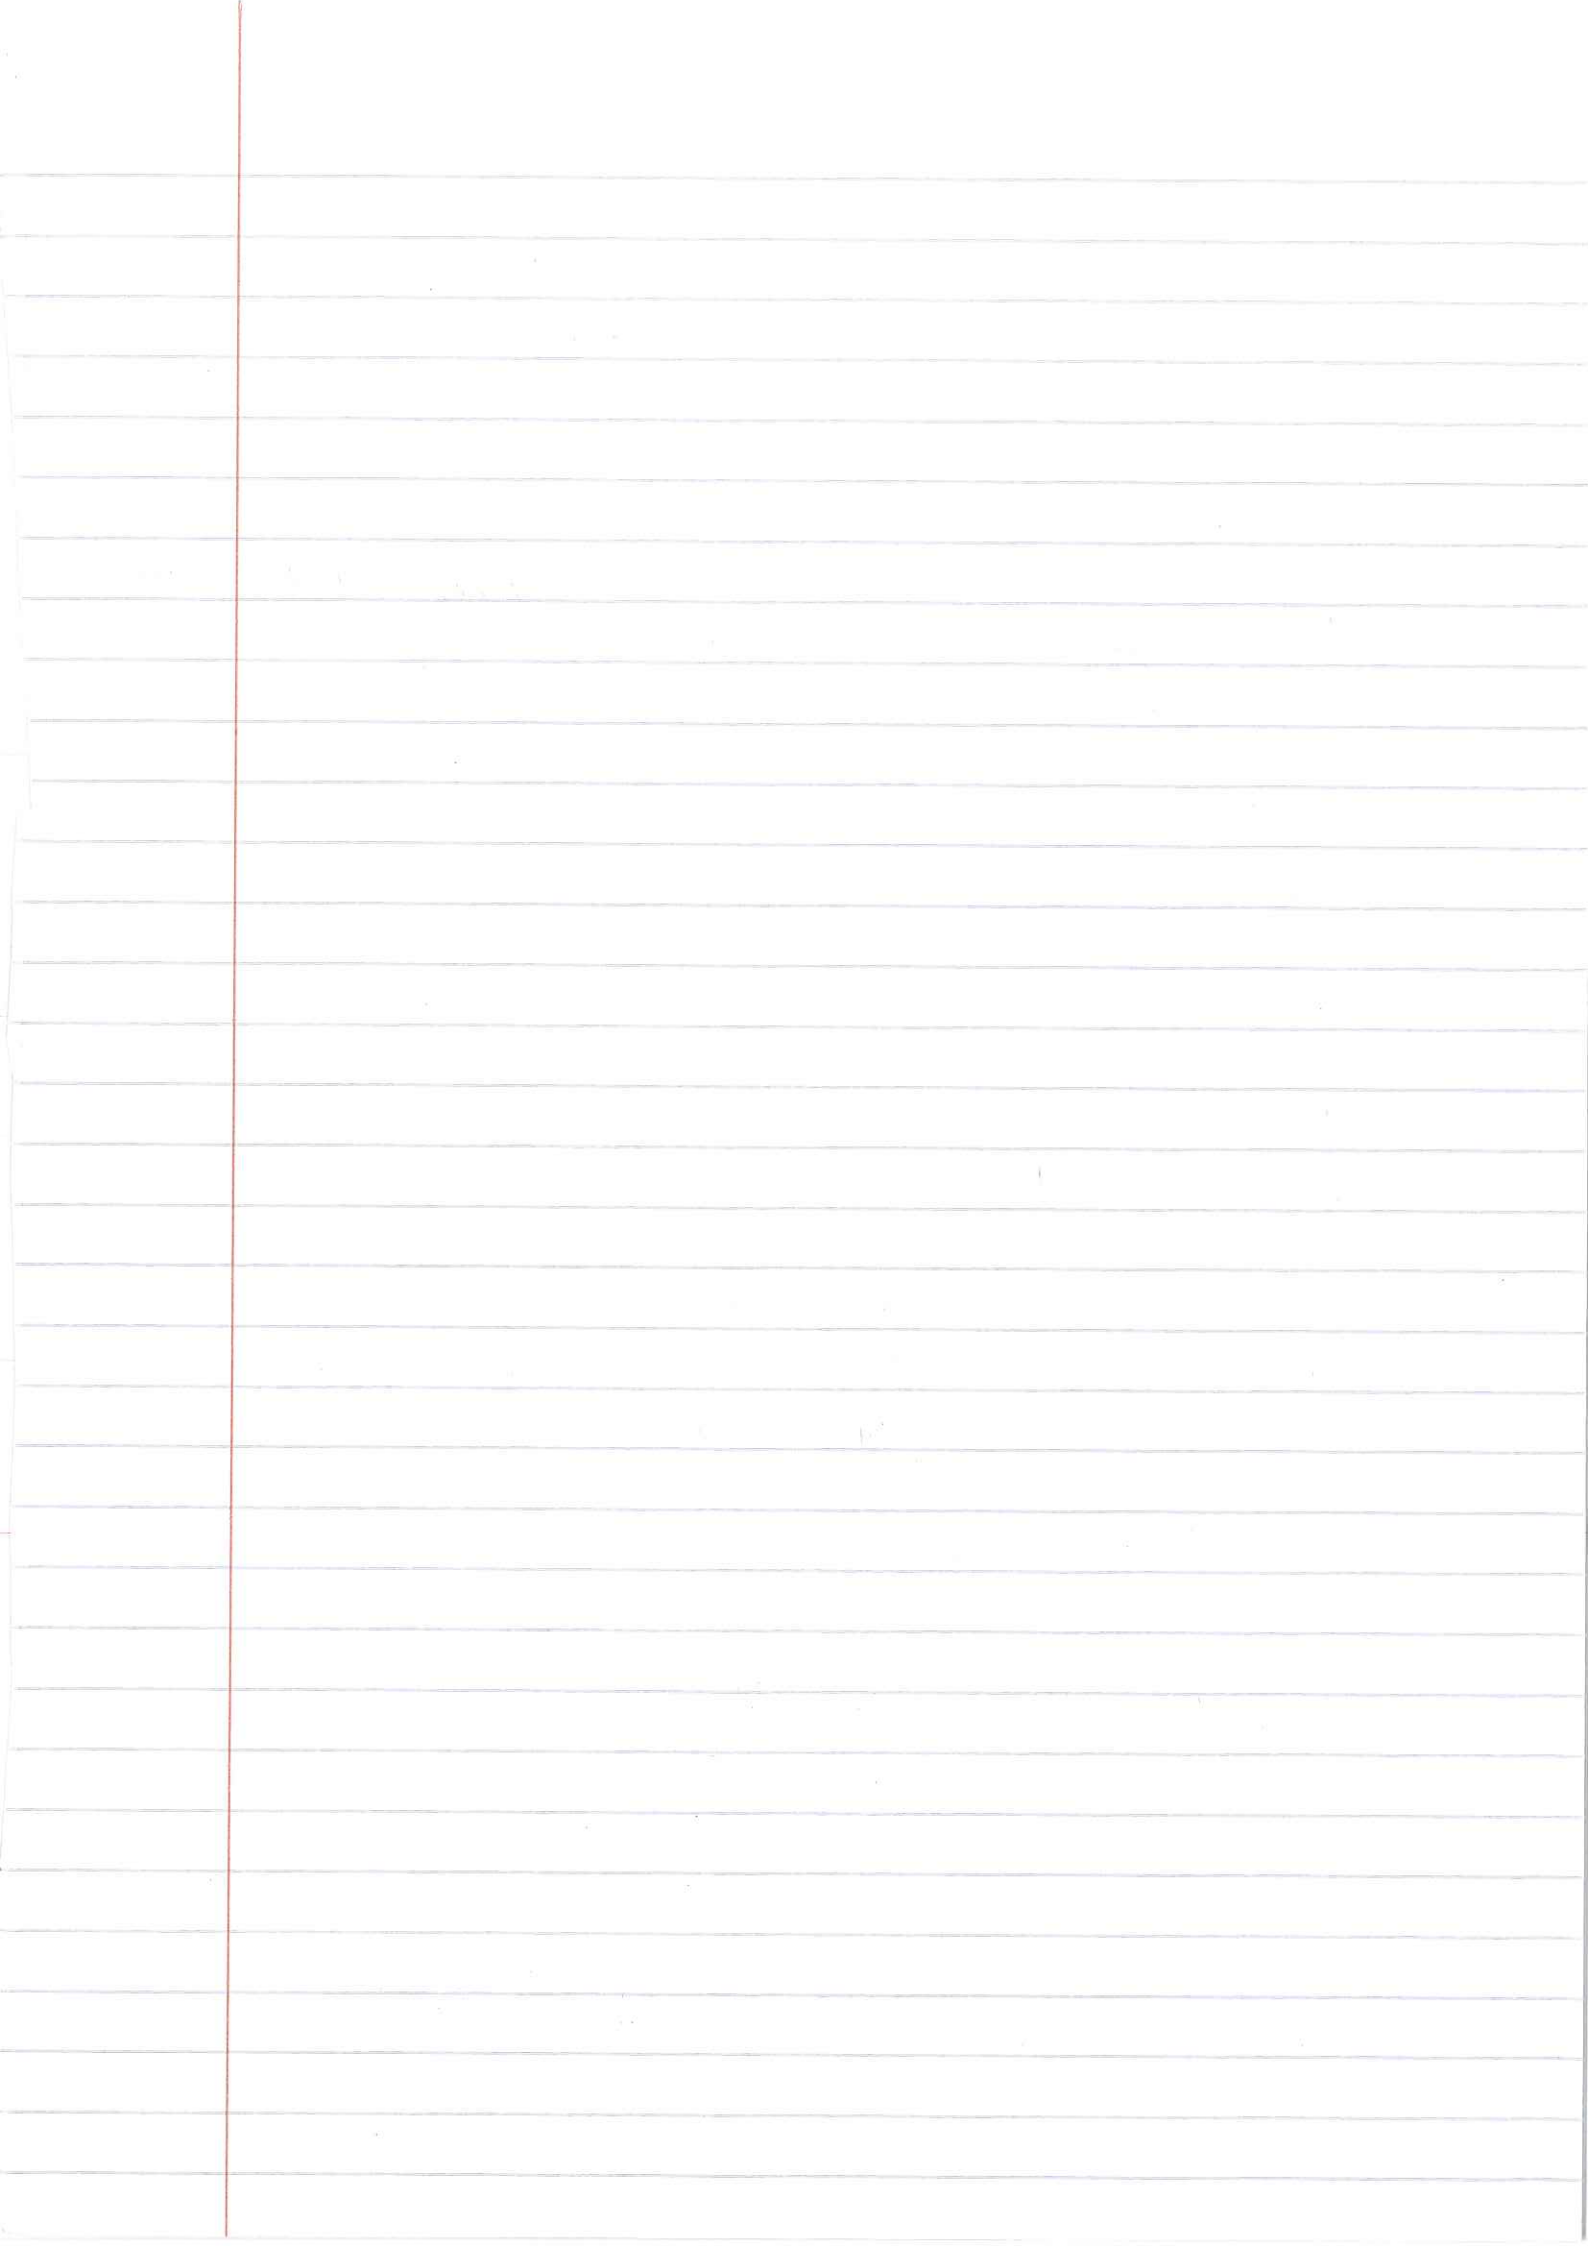

Say get of me you stupid humans. When it started doing it was small now the hole thing was upside down so they had to retreat back to the eagle. When they got there they all said "we need to get back to earth".

So they were on there they noticed that it was quite slow. So they hit the hyperspeed button and they were back near earth the only thing was to land.

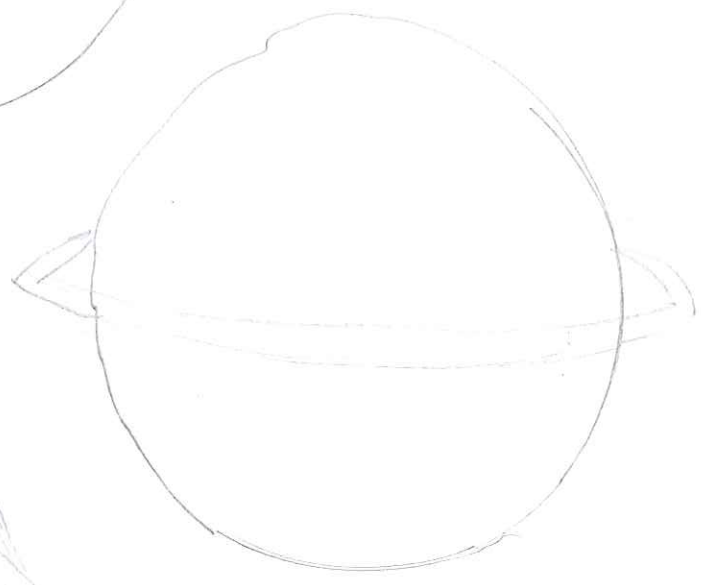

Chapter six.

When they were entering the earth's atmosphere the eagle began to fall apart but they were so close to landing when it 'fall' it to just chunks of air. They were falling to the ground luckily they all had parachutes on when they were safely on the ground lisa's dad went into nasa and shouted his head off when he was finished. The next thing lisa knew she was on the to her house.

The end.

lisa goes to her father ^{space} with will they ever
return to beautiful earth
in the cage
