

Missing in Space

beginning ♡ Once upon a time there was a little girl called Sophie. She had a dream about going to space. She loved jupiter and mars. She always dreamed about going to space to visit mars. That night when Sophie fell asleep she thought that she could have a really good chance to go to space. After a while she waited until her mum and dad went to bed so Sophie put some old clothes on and crept out the door. She went on middle ♡ Eventually she got to the space center. I said to this man "do you know where the space rocket ship is?" I said "it's over there" "Yeah follow me the man mark said" "Thank you"

So eventually I got to the rocket ship. I pressed the three two one button and blast off. So I started to take off so 2 minutes later I was so board but the view was amazing. You could see everything in the sky I could see my primary school and my house. It was awesome. 10 months later I got to an awesome planet where I got to... MARS. I had a packet of XL chips and a fudge and orange fanta. It was time to get out the rocket ship. I had all my gear on out I go. It was awesome but time was up at mars. Next stop was Jupiter next 10 months later we got to jupiter and it was bedtime so got into my sleeping back and fell asleep 12 hours later. I woke up and got a drink of water then went back to sleep. I woke up in my bed in the morning.

End ♡ I was like I thought I was at mars / Jupiter but I am not.

I said to mummy that I had a dream
about my dream but i was sad
that it did not happen.
