Who is Gillian Kyle?

Gillian Kyle is a Scottish artist and designer. Her work celebrates all things Scottish, from Robert Burns to iconic brands of food.

Gillian has designed prints with Scottish favourites, such as Barr's Irn-Bru, Scottish Pride and Lee's Toffee. She was granted an official licence from the head of Tunnock's to use their branding on her products.

Today, you are going to create a piece of art in the style of Gillian Kyle's teacake.

You will need:

- a teacake wrapper;
- a square sheet of white paper;
- three different sizes of circles;
- a pencil;
- a ruler;
- a red fine and broad pen.

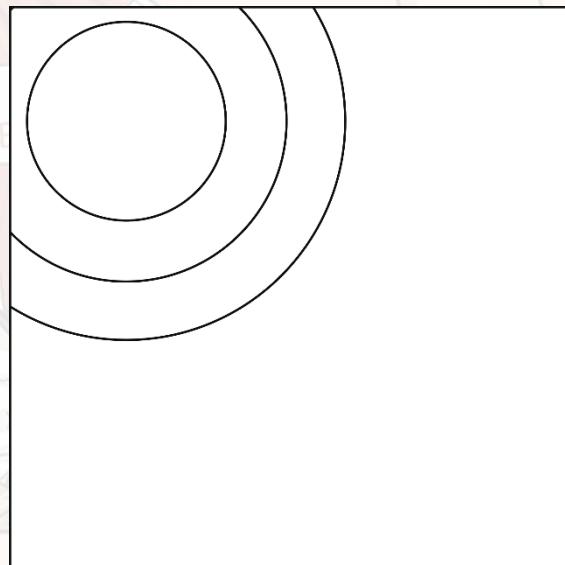

First, draw around the large circle.

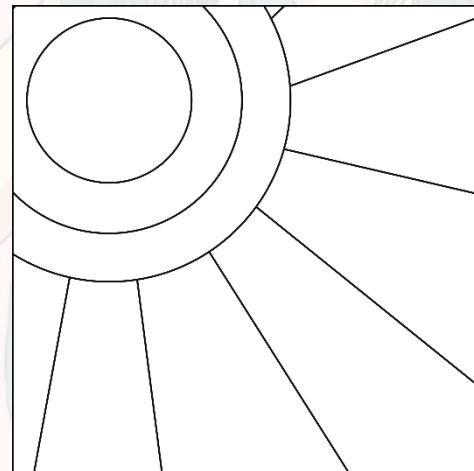

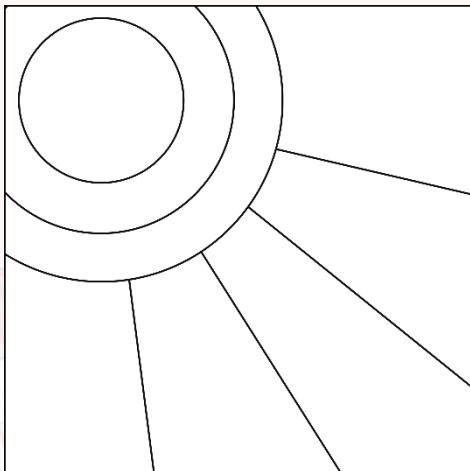

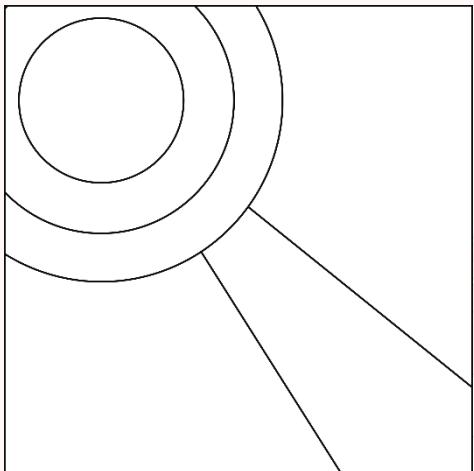

Why do you think it is best to start from the large circle and work in?

If you started with the small circle, you wouldn't be able to see the first circle you had drawn.

Next, draw around the two other circles. Ensure you leave a gap between them for the lettering.

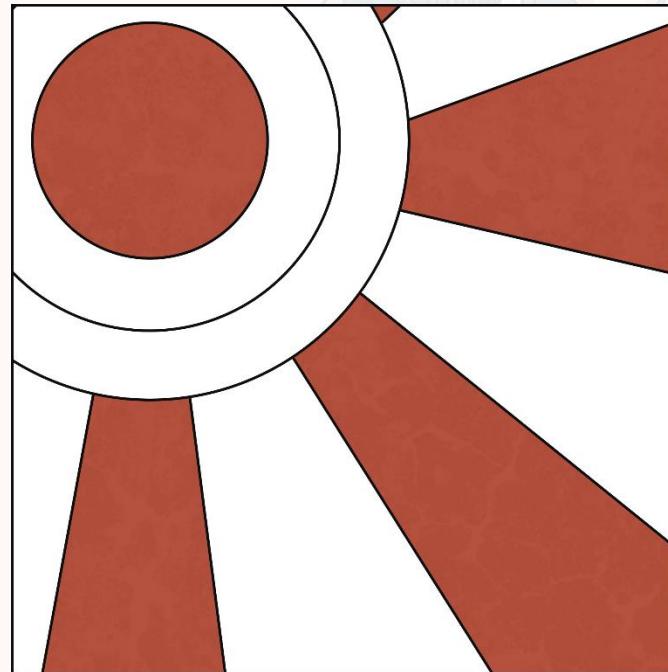

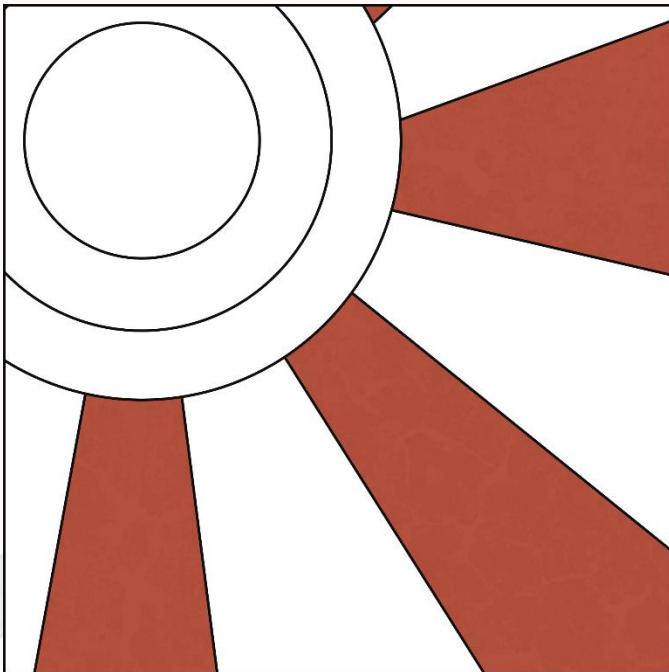

Next, use a pencil to draw the diagonal lines.

Handy Hint

Place the one end of the ruler on the circle and gently rotate it holding on to the opposite end.

Using a broad red pen, colour every second section and the inner circle.

Look closely at the lettering on the wrapper and choose words to focus on.

Include part of a word
from the teacake wrapper.
Write it in bubble writing and outline in red.

Handy Hint

Use the gap between the two circles to keep the letters the same size.

Write your name with a fine red pen.

Next, look closely at the 8-pointed star on the wrapper.
Can you see any shapes that would make it easier to draw?

Draw a square.

Draw
another square.

Rub out
some of the lines.

Draw a smaller square.

Draw
another
small square.

Rub out
some of the lines.

Colour
the inner star red.

Cut out the star carefully and stick it on the smallest circle.

Finally, go around the edges of the circle in red and use Gillian's hatched lines to add some texture.
