

Friends Can be Bad Too!

Everybody needs friends. There are lots of great things you can do with your friends. Sometimes, though, you might not want to do everything your friends do, because it may be wrong or unsafe.

1. The table lists things you might do because your friends do them. Tick in the table to show whether each thing is a good or bad way for your friends to influence you.

	Good/Right	Bad/Wrong
(a) Stealing sweets from a shop
(b) Saying 'please' and 'thank you'
(c) Being involved in a sponsored walk
(d) Playing where adults say not to
(e) Playing with a new classmate
(f) Calling someone mean names

2. Your best friend dares you to take a book out of someone else's bag. Draw pictures to show the 'right' and 'wrong' thing you could do. Underneath, write what you could say to the friend daring you.

Good/Right	Bad/Wrong

3. Write a reason why children might do things they know are wrong, just because their friends do them.
