

James Clerk Maxwell

TAKE PART! GLENKENS UNDER 18S PHOTO COMPETITION & EXHIBITION

Did you know that the guy who invented colour photography is buried in Parton Kirk graveyard?! His name was James Clerk Maxwell and you can celebrate his amazing invention by taking part in our community photo competition and exhibition this winter.

The theme for the under 18s photo competition is 'A Glenkens Winter'

To submit your entry please email a copy of your photo to maxwellphoto2020@gmail.com by the 5th December 2020 with your name and age.

Exhibition: All entries will be displayed in an online gallery here:

<https://maxwellphoto2020.wixsite.com/gallery>

and a shortlist will be displayed as an outdoor exhibition in Parton Village Hall car park during the winter holidays. Come and see if your photo is on display!

Prizes: The top three photos will receive a framed print of their photo and a voucher for Photobox.

Please make sure you have the permission of anyone who can be identified in your photo!
