

P1 Recommends:

Pumpkin Soup

Room on the Broom

You should read them because:

I like the pictures in both books.

I like the stories, I can't choose.

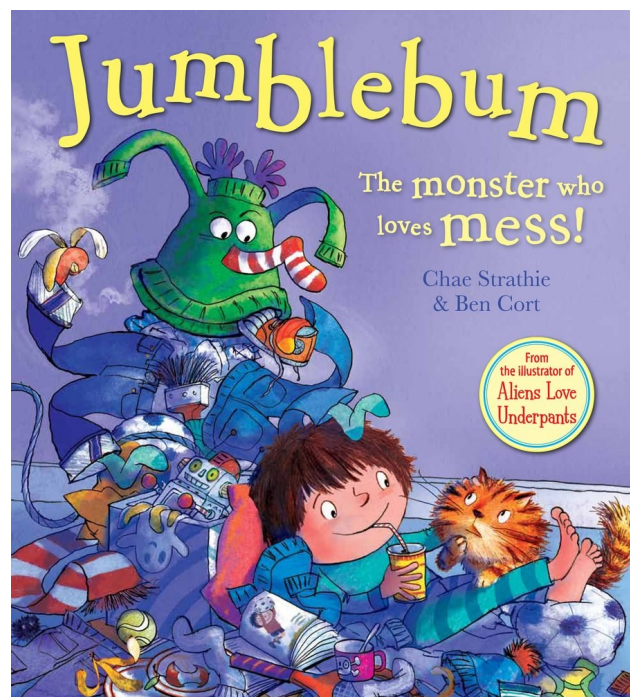

I liked making pumpkin soup when we read the book.

I like when they get the fancy broom.

The books are funny.

Primary 1 think both books are great to read.

P1/2 Recommends: Jumblebum

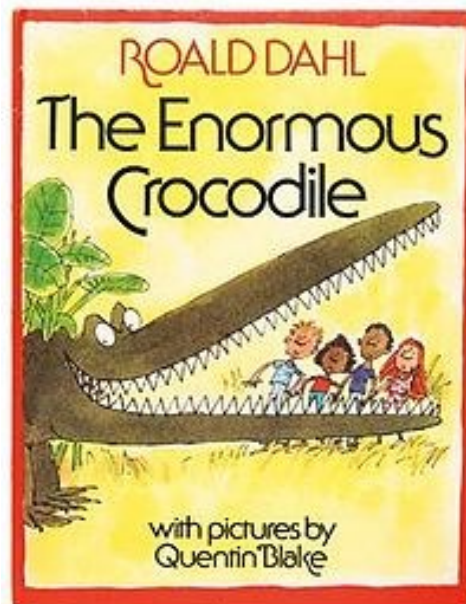

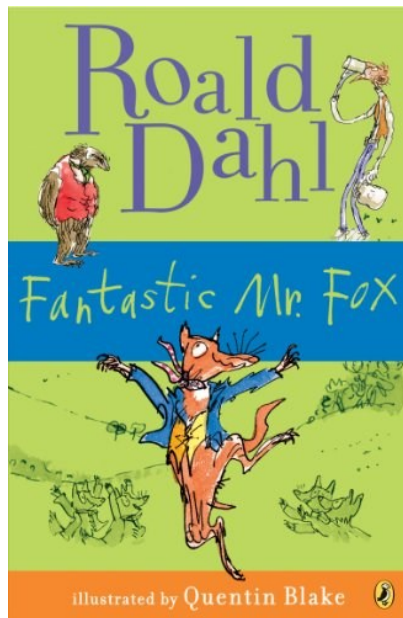

You should read it because:

The Jumblebum makes the room a mess so the book is very funny.

The Jumblebum uses the washing machine to get clean and he washes away.

P2/3 Recommends:
Fantastic Mr Fox
The Enormous Crocodile

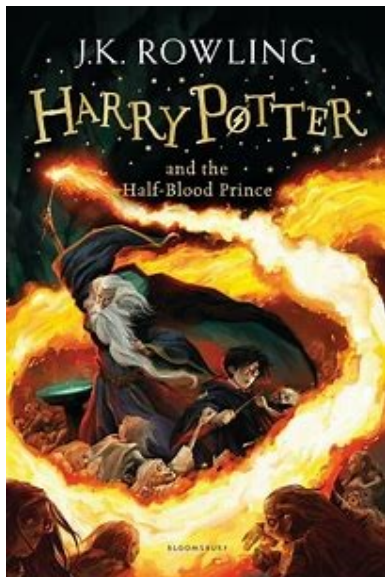

You should read it because:

The books are famous because Roald Dahl wrote them.

I like all the drawings and pictures in the books.

The books help your imagination.

P3 Recommends:
Harry Potter
My Little Pony

You should read them because:

Harry Potter: They are quite interesting books to read.

My Little Pony: Its good to help you imagine. It's good for people who like unicorns.

P4 Recommends: Rainbow Magical Fairies Books

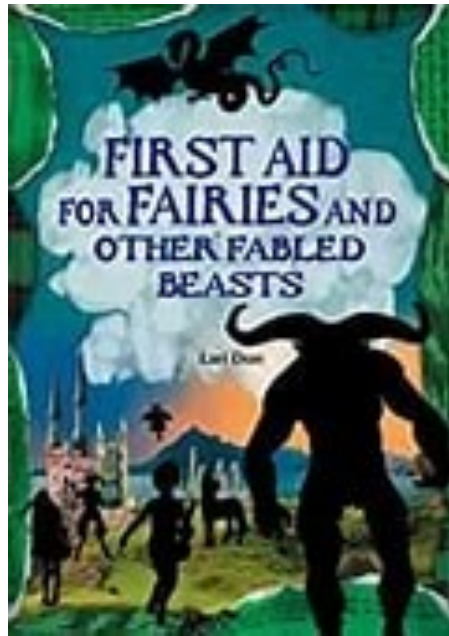

You should read them because:

- Lots of Fairies
- Same Characters
- Friendship
- On a quest

P5K Recommends:

First Aid for Fairies and other Fabled Beasts

You should read it because:

It's adventurous, feels more grown up
for our age.

The more you read the book the more you learn about mythological creatures.

P5L Recommends: David Walliams Books

You should read them because:
They are really funny.

P6 Recommends: Shadow

The Christmasaurus

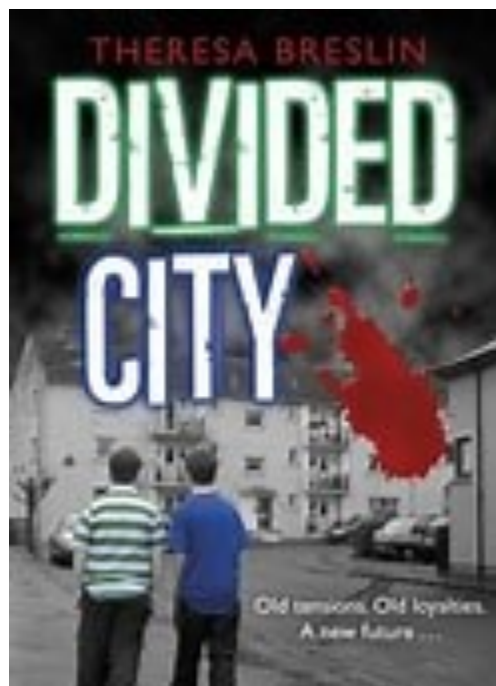

You should read them because:

Shadow: Really interesting about a bomb sniffing dog and a family in Afghanistan.

The Christmasaurus: A story for anyone who really likes Christmas.

P7 Recommends: Divided City

You should read it because:

It has football links and is full of drama.

You learn about religion and how you people be discriminated against.
