

Everyone come & join in, we need to save the Planet!

Come, we need everyone we can get!

On the ocean ground, by 2050, there will be more plastic than fish, come on let's go and clean it!

See all the Plastic? Pick it up with litter pickers.

Come, the world needs help!

Helping the planet is not just good, it FEELS good!

Ocean is not just water. It is a home. So why would you put rubbish in a home?!

On the school playground, there is more plastic and rubbish than children.

Love the world, love it for the rest of your life!
