Celebrating Success

Wider Achievement

Rebecca P7 R10

Rebecca won 2 of her classes with her pony who is called "Cheeky Rascal" and then won Under 16's Champion of the Show. Well done Rebecca!

Jay P5 R11

Jay came in first place on 04/06/2022 for his spectacular artwork. Primary 5b took inspiration from the show's theme this year celebrating The Platinum Jubilee by ensuring our artwork showcased the Queen, Scotland, and farming.

The class voted for our Highland Coo theme and created such lovely designs. They were all wonderful however, our winner seems pretty impressed with himself, and he should be.

Well done to Jay!

Henry James P3 R4

Henry James attended 1:1 swimming lessons and received an award.

This was really a big challenge for him, but he tried so hard.

He enjoyed it so much he is now on to the next block.

Well Done Henry James!

Jacob P5 R11

Jacob won the Kilmarnock Rugby Club coaches P5 player of the year .

Great end to his 1st year in rugby!

Fantastic Jacob!

Our Darvel Netball Club ended on a high recently with all netballers taking part in a mini tournament of matches outside.

Mrs Strang and Miss Mathers were so proud of how far the players have progressed over the weeks.

We ended with a cupcake, certificate and medal each... well done everyone and for your support in coming along. We have loved it!

A big thank you to Mrs Strang and Miss Mathers who have led the after school club.

Playground Developments

We are delighted with our newly painted upper playground which was made possible thanks to a grant from the Darvel Lottery!

P1 Come Dine with Me

Recently we invited in our new P1 children and their parents and carers to enjoy a school meal in the dinner hall. This was a great success and there were many clean plates all round!

Clothing Sale

P7 organised a recent clothing sale to raise money for their end of term activities. They raised over £150 towards their events. Thanks to everyone who donated items.
