P5 Class Newsletter

Mrs Johnston

Term 1 - September 2025

Literacy

We have been learning to:

- work out the meaning of words in our class novel - "James and the Giant Peach" by Roald Dahl;
- reading to find facts about the Titanic and
- writing about our personal values and about people who are special to us.

Numeracy

We have been learning to:

- read numbers up to thousands;
- put numbers in order from small to large;
- and
- partitioning numbers to understand the value each digit has in a number.

Learning across the Curriculum

We have been learning about:

- Drama - adopting a role/action and reaction
- PE - fitness
- Titanic research
- Poster design ideas for our Macmillan Coffee Morning
- RME, French and music with Mrs McGeoch

Macmillan Coffee Morning

P5 are hosting a Macmillan Coffee Morning on Monday 29th September at 11am until 12pm.

We will be planning and organising it in the coming weeks. We might be asking for some help with donations of cakes, tea and coffee soon. More news to follow...

General update from teacher

We have had a good first few weeks in P5 and have been working very well together. We have been getting to know each other and bonding as a class.

Achievements/class news

Star of the Week was Fraser.

Star of August was Samuel.

We have all managed to earn a few certificates for super work and impressive behaviour over the past few weeks. Well done everyone!
