

British Woodland Animals

Questions

1. On what kind of winter's day might you be able to see a comma butterfly?

- A sunny one
- A snowy one
- A rainy one
- A foggy one

2. How can you tell if a butterfly is a comma butterfly?

- It has a white comma shape on its head.
- It has a white comma shape on its body.
- It has a white comma shape on its underwing.
- It has a black comma shape on its underwing.

3. What is unusual about spotted wolf spiders?

- They have nine legs.
- They do not spin webs.
- They live in the trees.
- They are furry.

4. Which of the following words means "very good"?

- possible
- agile
- unusual
- excellent

5. Where do frogs lay their spawn?

- Under a leaf
- In shallow water
- In underground burrows
- In trees

6. How do adult frogs catch insects?

- On their sticky tongues.
- Lay traps for them.
- Grab them with their feet.
- Dive into the water.

7. What does "limbless" mean?

- Has no eyes
- Has no ears
- Has no legs
- Has no tail

8. When do slow worms come out to hunt?

- When it begins to get light.
- When it begins to get dark.
- In the middle of the day.
- In the middle of the night.

9. How many breeding pairs of goshawks are believed to be in the wild?

- 400
- 2,000
- 40
- 150

10. Which of these animals does a goshawk not eat?

- Squirrels
- Rabbits
- Sparrows
- Slow worms

11. What is the most common wild rodent in Britain?

- Dormouse
- Field mouse
- Wood mouse
- House mouse

12. Where do wood mice live?

- In shallow water.
- In underground burrows.
- Under piles of leaves.
- In trees.