Dance at Dumfries House, Cumnock
In partnership with the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland's Junior Conservatoire

Dear Primary 3 – 6 teachers,

For the past two years the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland and Dumfries House, Cumnock have been working in partnership to offer free dance classes to the young people of East Ayrshire as part of its Pre-Junior Conservatoire programme.

These dance classes are delivered as part of the Junior Conservatoire offering from the RCS to encourage children and young people across East Ayrshire to develop their dance technique, creativity and performance skills. We look to support young people who are enthusiastic about dance, want to learn new skills and who show potential and an aptitude for rhythm and movement.

Classes take place each Monday, 4pm at the Dumfries House Sports Centre during school term time and we are just about to open applications for new students to begin classes with us from September 2018. We would therefore very much appreciate your help in circulating the enclosed flyers to pupils in your class/school who would like to find out more and take part in this free opportunity.

We would like to invite those who are interested, aged 8 – 11 (P3 – P6), to join us at our information session on Monday 11 June, 5:30pm, and watch the end of term sharing featuring our current dance students at Dumfries House. This is a great chance to meet the teachers and ask any questions you that you may have!

Following on from this, we will be holding a free informal workshop/audition for those who want to learn more about dance on Saturday 23 June from 10:00am at Dumfries House. If you'd like the opportunity to be part of the programme it's essential you attend this session.

Spaces at the centre are limited so if we could please ask you to hand out the flyers to those interested as soon as possible, then this would be very much appreciated.
