Today I did nothing

When children come home at the end of each day,
The question they're asked as they run off to play,

Is "tell me what you did today?"

And the answer they gives makes you sigh with dismay,

"Nothing, I did nothing today!"

Perhaps nothing means that I read a book,

Or with a grown up I got to cook!

Maybe I painted a picture of blue,

Or heard a story of a mouse who flew,

Maybe I wrote my name by myself,

Or found a great book on the library shelf,

Maybe I helped a friend today,

Or went to my favourite area alone,

Maybe today was the very first time,

That my scissors followed a very straight line.

Maybe I sang a song right to the end,

Or worked with a special brand new friend,

When you're three, four or five your heart has wings,

And nothing can mean so many things.
