

P5 Home Learning Grid Week Beginning 04.05.2020

Home Learning Tasks – Please choose a selection of activities during the week.

Please note that you do not need to complete ALL tasks.

 Numeracy	 Literacy	 HWB	 Other
Education City & Sumdog Try playing some numeracy games and activities.	Education City & Giglets Try some literacy activities.	P.E Take part in Joe Wicks morning workouts (see our class blog for link).	Digital Technologies Update your own e-portfolio with some of this week's activities. Try BBC Dancemat to increase your typing speed!
Morse Code Try out the 'Morse Code for Beginners' attachment on the blog. There is also a challenge option. From this, can you create your own messages using Morse Code? Post them on your Blog and I will try to work them out.	Spelling See attachment for this week's VE Day themed spelling words. Complete one of the word searches for your words.	Party Planning Recreate the national celebration of VE Day by planning and preparing a party for your family to celebrate on Friday 8th May - maybe a picnic, bunting and some wartime music?	Drama Listen to a part of Winston Churchill's VE Day speech on the link attached to the blog. Can you recreate his speech by acting it out?
VE Day Menu Create a VE Day Celebration food and drink menu for your party. Calculate the cost of the party including tablecloths and decorations. How much would it cost altogether?	Writing Make a newspaper front page celebrating VE Day. Remember to include a heading, subheading and illustrations. You could also include some information about what local communities had planned to do to mark VE Day in 1945.	Food Technology Prepare for a VE Celebratory party by preparing some cakes to share with your family - can you decorate them in a VE Day theme? Or, try some of the Wartime recipes - what do you think, how did they taste?	Music Listen to some wartime classics e.g., In the Mood, Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy, Run Rabbit and White Cliffs of Dover - why were these songs so popular, what message did they send? Did you have a particular favourite?
Prices Then and Now During WW2, families had rations of foods which they had to work with to feed their families. Using the Blog link, find out how much your weekly ration items would cost nowadays.	Reading Complete one of the VE Day reading comprehension tasks - remember to try and challenge yourself.	VE Day Thoughts Watch the short PowerPoint about VE Day celebrations. Complete the VE Day Thoughts activity.	Expressive Arts World War 2 aeroplanes were iconic symbols of the time. Can you draw your own plane using black line or colour? I have attached some images on the Blog for you to use.
