

☆ Shaving Foam ☆

A sensory activity today to build fine motor skills and coordination, and have lots of messy fun!!

We used shaving foam, added some food colouring and stirred and watched as it changed colour.

We then added some number magnets to encourage number recognition and had a foamy number hunt.

You could also hide letters, coloured objects, or use fingers or paint brushes to mark make!

The fun is endless 😊

Enjoy! Sarah x