You heard last week that we are working towards becoming a Rights Respecting School. Being a Rights Respecting School is all about putting children's rights and the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC) at the heart of the school. Put your hand up if you can name all five of the school values.

In a very brief class discussion, think of examples of something you've seen or done in the last week which exemplifies each value. You have two minutes. Go!
