UNCRC Rights Respecting School

as a gold rights respecting school we use this to shape the behaviour and high expectations across the school by all adults and children. We model and promote these expectations foster a positive ethos within our school.

- We created our Class Charter together and decided on the expectations and rights related
- Secret Student - PG Films , please advise Mrs Stark if you DO NOT wish your child to watch PG Films in class
- House Points
- STAR system

School Improvement Pupil Committees

- All pupils are actively encouraged to make positive changes in our school and every pupil is in a SIPC

Sports Scotland – to embed our Gold level Sports Scotland School award

RRS - Rights Respecting School Committee to continue to maintain our Gold Status

Digital Committee – to ensure our school uses best practice to embed technology across our school

Homework next week will include an application form to apply for committee group.

P.E

- We have P.E 2 x per week

Wednesday with Mrs Reid

Friday with Mrs Ross

Please remember – no jewellery *, polo shirt and joggies/shorts/leggings.
Anything that makes it a quick change.

Communication Blogs/Twitter/HT Updates

Please remember that we try to communicate regularly with parents and families.

- Class Blogs – usually updated 2x per week (photos of pupils when /if we have permission)
- Parent Council – Facebook Page
- Pupil Blogs – they can share this with you at home
- School App
- Parents are invited in monthly to the school
