Social Studies: Scottish Food and Drink Fortnight

Choose an activity from the sheet to identify Scottish food and drink.

Scottish Food and Drink Fortnight

The purpose of Food and Drink Fortnight is to celebrate the wonderful food and high-quality produce that is available in Scotland.

Here are some ideas for how you can celebrate this special fortnight.

- Design a menu for the opening night of a new Scottish restaurant.
- Visit a local supermarket and explore the food labels to find out where the food came from.
- Research the history of agriculture in Scotland.
- Design a Scottish 'Dish of the Day' for the dining hall.
- Visit a local restaurant to watch a Scottish meal being cooked.
- Try a new Scottish food.
- Search for recipes for traditional Scottish food.
- Use a map of the world to find out which of our favourite foods use the most food miles to reach our plate.
- Design a front cover for a Scottish recipe cookbook.
- Make posters to advertise Scotch Beef, Scotch Lamb, salmon and seafood, and dairy.
