

Kilmarnock Learning Community

Wish to invite all parents, carers and colleagues to join the Establishments to a shared event to promote children's wellbeing

On Monday the 30th of March, 2015 between 4 p.m. and 7 p.m. everyone is welcome to visit Kilmarnock Academy to find out more about our Partners in Education. You will be able to walk round and speak to a number of agencies and organisations including

- ADHD Alliance – Carol Cartwright (ADHD appointed Nurse) & a parent from the Support Group
- Onsite Services; New School Meals Pr.1 – 3 (tasters available)
- Relationships Sexual Health and Parenthood – An overview of the new programmes running in Primary and Secondary establishments
- Nurture - Mark Brotherton, Educational Psychologist
- E.A.S.T. - East Ayrshire Support Team
- Campus Police Officer - Jason McGinn
- Kilmarnock Academy; CONNECT - Chris Kelpie
- Play Team
- Active Schools – Sports and Activities in Schools and after school clubs
- Hillbank Early Childhood and Family Centre and Riccarton Early Childhood Centre – available to discuss Early Years
- Youth Advocacy
- Speech and Language Therapy
- East Ayrshire Young Carers
- Kirkstyle Primary School - Dyslexia Friendly Schools