

This mind map represents a body of expertise and willing workforce ready to assist local authorities and teachers in the re-opening of schools. This is not an exhaustive list of support for outdoor learning, it is a simple snapshot to exemplify expertise, breadth and depth of outdoor learning experiences. NB where organisations are placed on the mind map is not representative of the totality of what they do.

