

Saving Water

Think about what you have been learning in class. How is saving water important to the environment?

Your task is to design a poster which persuades others to save water. Think about the persuasive language you could use.

Think about any images / drawings you could include, or any important information required to persuade people that saving water is so important. Remember to ask Miss McLaren or Mrs Campbell if you need paper to complete this task. See some examples below.

