Friday 26th February 2021

R.E.

The 25th and 26th February (today and yesterday) is when the Jewish festival of Purim is celebrated this year.

Purim is a Jewish festival which celebrates a time when the Jewish people were saved by a brave, young Jewish woman called Esther.

Task 1

- Watch the video to hear the story of Esther:
 - <https://watchkin.com/5403bee6b9>
- The story is all about courage, bravery and standing up for what is right. Answer the following questions:
 1. Who are the heroes?
 2. Who are the villains?
 3. What does it mean to be brave?
 4. Can you think of anytime you have seen something happening that you knew was not right - but you chose not to do anything about it?
 5. How do you think it would feel to be brave and take that stand?
 6. How would it help other people if you stood up for what was right?

Task 2

- Choose 6-9 main events in the story of Esther and create a storyboard or comic strip to summarise the story. Your storyboard/comic strip must have:
 - 6-9 main events from the story.
 - A clear beginning, middle and end to the story.
 - An image to match each event you have chosen.
 - Some text to describe what is happening in the story.
- You can use the template on the blog to help or create your own template.
- This link explains how to create a comic strip and gives lots of examples of how a comic strip should look:
