R.E.

- We started to look at the Jewish festival of Purim last week, and learned about the Story of Esther, which is celebrated during Purim.
- Today we are going to learn more about the meaning of the story of Esther, and why is it still important to Jewish people today.

- Read or watch the Story of Esther again to remind you of what happened.
- Watch Sway which explains task.

Task 1

- Complete the table, writing examples from the story for each of the meanings. Part of the sentence has been given so you just need to fill in the missing words.
- Write an example of something similar that happens today.

Optional Task

- Write an acrostic poem about the festival of Purim.
- You can either use the letters in the word PURIM, or a character's name from the story: ESTHER, MORDECAI etc.
